

Pancreatic Cancer Awareness Symposium

AGENDA

2:00pm Welcome

2:05-2:30pm Opening Session

FDA Treatments and Clinical Trials

Roderich Schwarz, MD - Indiana University School of Medicine

This session will cover standard treatment approaches and current clinical trials.

2:35-3:00pm

Current Diagnostic Tools for Pancreatic Cancer

John Abad, MD – Indiana University School of Medicine

This session will describe the various tools available for diagnosing pancreatic cancer including radiology and endoscopic imaging.

3:05-3:30pm

Genetics of Pancreatic Cancer

Reginald Hill, PhD - University of Notre Dame

This session will explore familiar patterns of pancreatic cancer, hereditary risk and precursors for pancreatic cancer.

3:35-4:15pm Keynote Address

Recent Research in Pancreatic Cancer

Murray Korc, MD - Indiana University

This session will outline some of the most recent research advances in pancreatic cancer.

4:20-5:00pm Reception and Poster Session

This session will feature pancreatic cancer research projects and collaborations currently ongoing at the University of Notre Dame.